From the President's Corner:

Happy Holidays Everyone.

'Tis the season for giving thanks, making presents and spending time with family and friends. Wishing you good health and happiness. Be creative and think out of the box with your art. Like other meetings, I will be out of town for this one. Thanks for a nice easy year.

The last of the business for 2017 is electing new officers. Thanks to those that will stay in their position. Linda Kolar will be President full time, Donna Smith as Treasurer, Flo Carr for Community Service, Deb McLin with the Library, Brenda Edeskuty will handle Membership, Clara Vigil for the Newsletter, and Deborah Kubicek as Webmaster. Thank you. Thank you.

As Cindy Barfield said last year, if we like our groups or clubs, we need to step up and help. We only need chairman for these positions, two Vice Presidents, Secretary, Publicity and Donation Quilt.

See you in 2018.

Micki Taylor

OFFICER REPORTS

Vice Presidents – Sharon Kapple & Erin Flesher

The November guild meeting is after Thanksgiving this year on November 28. It will be at the United Church of Los Alamos starting at 7pm. There's lots going on this month. All those who signed up for the UFO challenge, your time is up. Bring your finished projects for show-and-tell. The winning name will be drawn at the meeting from the UFO challenge participants. Those attending will choose the winner of the Team Challenge, and the trophy will be awarded. There will also be a small guild birthday celebration. The main event, however, is a demonstration of quilting templates/rulers by Cindy Barfield. Cindy is a talented quilter, entertaining, and always a welcome guest. Hope to see you at the meeting.

Secretary – Joan Williams

Community Service – Flo Carr

I would like to say thank you again to everyone who has donated or been involved with quilts this past year for Community Service, and also for Project Linus. All quilts are very welcomed by people who can use the comfort and "hug" a quilt provides. And many thanks to all who help out and attend the Valentines Day luncheon we hold with the Senior Center Quilters.

Happy Holidays!
